The officers and directors of this Bank solicit the accounts of Individuals, Firms and Banks, and offer every accommodation to its patrons consistent with safe banking.

Our Banking connections are the strongest and most conservative in the state, and we are at all times prepared to meet every demand.

Our depositors are protected with ample insurance against Burglary and Larceny.

A. L. ROSS, President.

WILL L. STEPHENS, Cashier.

Och, are you hurt? Then trade where you will be treated right and you will stop squealing.

MASON & PRICE.

M. Joachimi, in another column, calls attention to a sale of spring bargains now going on at his wide-awake establishment. Don't miss this sale.

The friends of Frank Gwynn will sympathize with him in his great misfortune of this week, and be glad to learn that he expects to be out again soon.

Mrs. J. C. Settle of St. Louis, arrived here several days ago and is making a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Price, and other friends and relatives.

Mrs. F. M. Newkirk of Tipton was here from Saturday until Tuesday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. E. Neville. She was accompanied by her daughter Virginia.

Mrs. F. C. White departed Tuesday morning for Iowa to make a visit at her former home. She was accompanied to Kansas City by her husband, Supt. White, of the Brick Plant.

Julius Schweer of Windsor, is stringing the new cable for the Versailles Telephone Co., and the patrons who were cut out several days last week are again attached and the line is working nicely.

A large crowd of youngsters held a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Spurlock on Campbell street last Friday night. The surprise was in favor of their oldest son Jesse Spurlock, and those present had an enjoyable time.

Carl Duff, who has been working in the machine shops of the Rio Grande at Denver, Colorado, for the past year, had the misfortune last week of having one of his middle fingers cut off, near the second joint in one of the machines while at work. The injury laid him off for some time. Carl's Versailles friends hope the injury may not prevent him from holding his position in the future.

Private money to loan by Chas. Kavanaugh.

Henry Moser of the Versailles Milling Co., this week received a fine big power pump which he is having installed at the mill. This pump will be adequate to furnish a water supply for the mill and is a substantial addition to the already complete system Mr. Moser has in operation.

The spring season was formally opened here on Thursday night of last week, when the ladies of the M. E. Church South gave an ice cream and sun-bonnet supper at the Martin Hotel store-room. A large crowd was present and the supper netted the ladies $52, which goes to the building fund for the new church.

George Treon came over from Olean last Saturday and has taken his old position as night operator at central office for the Versailles Telephone Company. George is an accommodating operator and the patrons of the telephone will be glad to see him back at his post again.

Greg. Gunn, who has just finished his second year's course at the Barnes Medical College in St. Louis arrived home this week for his summer vacation. Greg is getting along nicely in his medical studies and with the close attention he is giving to his work will eventually develop into a physician of ability.

The Curran-Milton Comedy Co. held the boards here three nights this week and gave the patrons of the opera house general satisfaction. The plays put on were all good and every actor in the company did justice to the characters impersonated, and should the company return here in the future they will be greeted with good houses.

Now that spring has set in, talk of base ball is occupying the minds of our "fans." It behoves our base ball enthusiasts to be up and doing, or the neighboring towns will be far in the lead, as many have already organized and have their ball teams in active practice. Efforts are being made to get up a first-class team for Versailles.

E. N. Simons, who was relieved last week by T. P. Listen of St. Louis, as agent for the Missouri Pacific here, departed last Friday for Coffeyville, Kansas, and from there will make a tour of the southwest and will go to the Territories probably before his return. He will be off for a month or more on a vacation, and expects to put in most of the time traveling.

Our line of up-to-date, Tailor-made Ladies' Skirts and Waists are beauties, come and take a look at them.
